Alki PTA is thrilled to present this year's PTA Musical, The CLAW!

The newest children's musical brought to you by Beat by Beat Press - the creators of Super Happy Awesome News and Could You Hug a Cactus. The CLAW tells the story of a group of toys stuck inside a broken-down Claw Machine for years and what happens to them when it suddenly springs to life again!

This year's musical is being produced & directed by 100% volunteer parent power and will be held on Alki's own STAGE in the Alki Lunchroom featuring a cast of 3rd, 4th and 5th grade Alki thespians!

Stay tuned in January 2023 for how to get your tickets to see The CLAW. Mark your calendars - 3 performances will take place Friday, February 10th & Saturday, February 11th 2023!

For more information: musical@alkipta.com.

Minimizing the Impact of Snow Days

Seattle Public Schools and Seattle Education Association are working together to explore using technology so students can continue to learn from home during inclement weather/snow days. We cannot predict or control the weather, but we can maximize our response to it. Every SPS student has access to a laptop or an iPad along with options for internet access. This means we now have a proven way to engage with students even when snow or other extreme weather makes it unsafe to go to school buildings.

ALKI ELEMENTARY PTA

$315 raised of $10,500 goal

Our mission is simple: Alki PTA's mission is to support an engaged community that partners with our school to advocate for every child. This school year, our fundraising efforts directly impact all PTA initiatives, including:

- School-wide engagement activities that include assemblies, yearbooks, recess equipment and staff and grade-level field trips
- After-school enrichment programs and financial assistance for any families interested
- Teacher appreciation, support, and partnership throughout the year
- Family and Community events and programming that support our mission

Thank you to families that donated snacks and drinks to stock up the staff lounge for the last couple weeks of school for 2022!

The staff appreciation committee filled the lounge with chips, trail mix, candy, fruit, drinks and more on Tues, Dec 6. There are also 3 raffle prizes for staff to win.

Each month the PTA strives to bring a little extra cheer and treats to our amazing Alki staff.

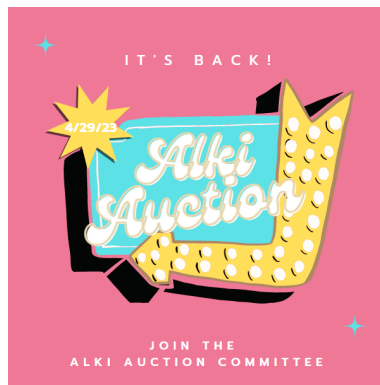

Want to help out? You can volunteer once for an hour or help the committee with planning.

Email face@alkipta.com for more information or to volunteer.

Thank you, book fair volunteers!

The book fair was a great success, and we thank all the volunteers who helped in the library during book fair week.

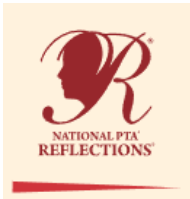

Auction is BACK!

Email auction@alkipta.com to learn how you can be involved.

We need many volunteers to pull off our largest fundraiser of the year!

Alki PTA is participating in this year's National PTA Reflections arts program! The theme for this year was "Show your Voice!"

Four students have created amazing artwork for our Reflections program this year! These three drawings and one photograph will all be a part of the Seattle Council PTSA's district-wide art show. Details of the show to follow! See their wonderful pieces below.

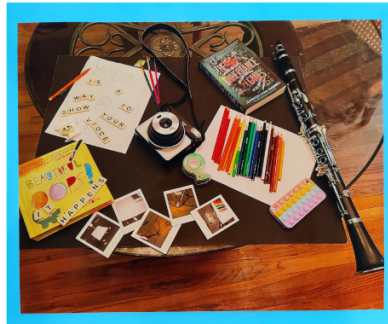

Special thanks to our Reflections Chair, Lindsay Yost, for organizing and photographing these wonderful pieces of art!

Alki Winter Giving Garland

This season, we're coming together as a school community for this season of giving.

The PTA's Winter Giving Garland is back and through all donations collected, gift cards will be available for Alki Families in need.

To donate to the Winter Giving Garland, you can donate at <https://alkipta.square.site/>

Are you in need of winter coats, groceries, household supplies or help purchasing holiday gifts?

Please reach out to Principal Skeffington (meskeffington@seattleschools.org)

'Tis the season of giving and spreading love around our school community.

Free Little Library

Do you have books that can be donated and shared with our community? Please consider restocking our Free Little Library outside the front of our school before the Winter Break!

This community resource has been made possible and maintained by the Alki PTA, generous book donations from Pegasus Books, and members of our community.

Note: Please only drop off books as we cannot accept clothing or food donations at the Free Little Library. Thank you for keeping this safe and critter free over break!
